Index to Volume XV, 1946

Adams, John, sent Cooper to Port Louis, 39
Adee, Alvey A., quoted on occupation of Peking, 282–283
Aguirre de la Barreda, José María: interpreter for Vega, 391; announced Rhin loading, 392; Godoy replaced, 395
Alaska: gold discovery in, 259, 260; first gold rush, 259; first mining districts in Northwest, 263, 268–269; Alaska Commercial Company, 271, 275; gold on beach, 278. See also Gold; Nome
Alaska: Promyshlennik and Sourdough, by Tompkins, review of, 107–108
Albert J. Beveridge Memorial Fellowship, 125
America Is West: An Anthology, ed. by Flanagan, review of, 373–374
American Diaries: An Annotated Bibliography, ed. by Matthews and Pearce, review of, 441–442
American-Russian Rivalry in the Far East, by Zabriskie, review of, 244–245
American West: A Treasury, ed. by Targ, review of, 373–374
Americans: A Book of Lives, by Hagedorn, review of, 366
Anatomy of the San Francisco Cable Car, by Parker, review of, 469
Anderson, P. H., in Alaska, 261, 263, 268
Anderson, Rufus: advised sending evangelical presbyter to Hawaii, 141–142; protested English episcopate, 142–143
Anglo-Dutch treaty of May 20, 1784, 31
Annual Report of the American Historical Association for the Year 1944, review of, 249
Aoki, Viscount: memorandum to powers, 280; note to Washington quoted, 281
Armstrong, Richard: letter about mission in Hawaii quoted, 142; quoted on educating Hawaiians, 315
Asia for the Asiatics, by Ward, review of, 242

Bailey, Thomas A., review by, 367–368
Baja California: description, 295; towns, 295–296; invaded by Leyva, 296; U.S. troops to, 296–297; looting, 302; skirmish at Tijuana ended socialist invasion, 304
Balestier, Joseph: consul at Rhio, 51; lived at Singapore, 51
Balfour, Arthur, in "Fourth party," 181, 191
Baltimore Sun, article aroused interest in gold rush, 60
Bancroft, Hubert Howe, methods described, 427
Bannon, John Francis, reviewed by, 454–455
Barnes, Harry Elmer, quoted on historical writing, 308–309
Batavia: chief commercial entrepot of East Indies, 45; location, 45; reasons for decline in trade, 45; U.S. consuls at, 46–48; U.S. ships to, 47
Battle Report: The Atlantic War, ed. by Karig, review of, 249–250
Beach, Sir Michael Hicks: moved vote of censure, 188–189; chairman of National Union, 190; leader in Commons, 190
Beale, Edward F., aided Vega, 391, 392
Beals, Ralph L., review by, 222–223
Becker, Carl, quoted on public opinion, 209
Bemis, Samuel Flagg, review by, 348–349
Bender, A. B., review by, 359–360
Bernstein, Harry, review by, 367
Berthold, Simon: seized Mexicali, 296; defeated at Tecate, 298–299; killed at El Alamo, 300
Betancourt, Rómulo, will not recognize Trujillo, 410
Betio Beachhead, by Wilson, review of, 463
Bickman, Martin, consul at Port Louis, 44
Bingham, Woodbridge, "Historical Training and Military Intelligence," 201–206
Black Hills: gold rush, 59 ff.; rumors of gold in, 60; danger of Indian forays, 60; fort recommended, 60; Custer's expedition, 60; gold discovered, 60. See also Gold rush, Black Hills
Black Ships off Japan, by Walworth, review of, 360–361
Blackton, Charles Stuart, "The Surrender of the Fortress of Truk," 400–408
Blake, H. L., in Alaska, 260–261, 262, 263, 266
Bliss, Tasker H.: organized brigade to enforce neutrality laws, 298; arrested Price and Hopkins, 302
Bloom, Lansing Bartlett, death of, 250
Borthwick, Sir Algernon, supported Primrose League, 184
Boxer revolt: dramatic, 279; origins, 279; threat of partition of China, 279; policy of powers, 279 ff.; Russian proposal of evacuation of Peking, 282, and refusal by powers, 282–283; Article VIII, 284. See also China in 1900; Japan, foreign policy of Boyd, William Harland, "The Holladay-Villard Transportation Empire in the Pacific Northwest, 1868–1893," 379–389
Braden, Spruille, appointment, 414
Bradley, Harold Whitman, reviews by, 462–463, 464
Brand, Carl F., review by, 371–372
Bray, Thomas, founded Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, 192, 193
Briggs, Ellis: ambassador to Dominican Republic, 414; persona non grata to Trujillo, 414; exiled to China, 414; director of Office of American Republics Affairs, 414

British Rule in Burma, by Harvey, review of, 446–447
Broek, Jan O. M., review by, 368–369
Brown, Thomas, aided Vega, 391, 392
Brynteson, John, in Alaska, 264–267 passim, 274
Buchanan, Russell, review by, 457–458
Buchanan, William, consular representative at Port Louis, 39
Buck, A. E., forwarded summary of Japanese reply to Germany to Hay, 283
Building of the Burma Road, The, by Tan, review of, 241
Bush, Vannevar: report by, mentioned, 2, 5; Roosevelt letter to, quoted, 2; letter to Truman quoted, 2; Bush Plan, 3; quoted on S. 1297, 24–25
Butler, Nicholas Murray, eulogized progress of 'Democracy' of Santo Domingo, 409

Calabashes and Kings, by Porteus, review of, 354–355
California, Baja. See Baja California
California Cook Book, by Callahan, review of, 375
California Government, by Crouch and McHenry, review of, 232
Calkins, John U., prosecuting attorney in Whitney trial, 288–293
Cameron, Meribeth, "The Periodization of Chinese History," 171–177; review by, 350
Cannon, M. Hamlin, ed., "A Further Note on the Bankruptcy of Joseph Smith in Illinois," 214–215
Cape of Good Hope: Salem ships cleared for, 32, 33; important place of call, 37; free trade under British rule, 37–38; U.S. consul to, 38; no foreign consuls admitted after return of, to Holland, 38; recaptured by British, 38
Caribbean: Sea of the New World, by Arciniegas, review of, 440–441
Carlson, L. H., "The Discovery of Gold at Nome, Alaska," 259–278
Caughey, John Walton, reviews by, 122–124, 247–248, 249, 373–376, 468–470
Cazotte, Charles de: French consul in San Francisco, 391; complained of Vega's shipments, 391, 396–397; aboard Rhin, 396
Central committee [Conservative]: formation, 180; management of party in hands of, 180; held party purse strings, 185, 186; Churchill opposed, 185; Salisbury supported, 186–187; dissolved, 190
Challenge of Red China, The, by Stein, review of, 118–120
Chan, Shau Wing, review by, 439–440
Chi Ch'ao-ting, economic interpretation of Chinese history cited, 173–174
Chibás, Eduardo, cited on Dominican Republic as obstacle to democracy, 410
China, a Model for Europe, by Maverick, review of, 444–445
China and America, by Dulles, review of, 445–446
China Fights On, by Pan, review of, 240
China in 1900: anti-foreign movement in, 279; possibility of partition, 279, 284–285; supposed wealth of, 279; U.S. and Great Britain opposed to partition of, 279; Russia wished territorial gains from, 279; Japan's policy toward, 279–280; relief expedition to Peking, 280 ff.; siege of legations, 280; question of punishment, 283, and indemnity, 283
China's Postwar Markets, by Chih, review of, 120–121
Chinatown, U.S.A., by Colman, review of, 457
Chinese civil service examinations: early history of, 158, 159; failure of modern system, 158, 169–170; initiation ceremonies, 159; for degrees of Budding Genius, 160–162, Promoted Man, 161–163, Achieved Scholar, 163–165; further examinations, 165–166; under Manchu emperors, 165–168; three categories under 1933 law, 169
"Chinese Civil Service: Yesterday and Today, The," by Yu-Shan Han, 158–170
Chinese history: dynastic histories, 171; systems of dating, 171–172; perspective, 173; economic interpretation, 173–174; pattern, 174 ff., 177; Occidental influence on, 174; divisions, 174–175; cycle, 175–176; bisection scheme, 176. See also Dynasties; Mandate of Heaven; Periodization
Chinese Mind, The, by Wang, review of, 439–440
"Christopher Codrington's Will: Launching the S.P.G. into the Barbadian Sugar Business," by John A. Schutz, 192–200
Churchill, Lord Randolph: in parliament, 179, 180; strength in country, 179, 184, 191; storm center, 181; opposed Northcote, 183; opposed Salisbury, 183, 186, 188 ff.; "Elijah's Mantle" quoted, 183–184; statements against central committee quoted, 185, 186–187; hostile to Percy, 185–186; chairman of National Union, 186, 188; agreement with Salisbury, 190; in cabinet, 190; prepared way for fall, 191
Clarke, Sir Bowcher, criticized S.P.G., 199
Clayton, John Middleton, failed to inform consul of Java's refusal to accept him, 58
Clipper Ship Men, by Laing, review of, 111
Codrington, Christopher: bequest to S.P.G., 192; life, 192–193; interest in reform movement, 192, 194; death, 194; provisions of will, 195; mandate to S.P.G., 195, 199; dispute about will of, 196–197
Codrington, William, 195, 196, 197
Coghlan, Nathan C.: attorney in Whitney trial, 291; Anita Whitney's lack of confidence in, 291; plea, 293

Cole, Allan B., review by, 360–361
Color and Democracy, by DuBois, review of, 218–219
Communist Labor party: members of, exempt from deportation order, 286; arrests, 287; associated with I.W.W., 288, 291–292, 293; attempt to establish criminal nature of, 288
Communist party: raids upon, 286; membership in, deportable offense, 286
Condon, Ed, testimony in Whitney trial quoted, 289
Confucianism: elaborated "Mandate of Heaven" theory, 171; state cult in Han period, 171
Conger, E. H., arranged indemnity for Boxer revolt, 284
Conness, James, thought Vega cheated, 394–395
Conservative party [England]: organization, 178, 179, 180, 182, 191; subordination of popular elements, 178; question of authority, 178, 180; leadership, 180 ff.; central office, 180, 187, 190, 191; "Fourth party," 181–186 passim; Primrose League, 184, 190; finances in hands of central committee, 185, 186; terms of agreement, 190. See also Central committee; Churchill, Randolph; "Fourth party"; National Union; Tory Democracy
Consuls, U.S.: Consular Service established, 34; refused recognition, 34; presence of, aid to merchants, 34; government sought recognition and admittance, 34–35, 56–57; treatment of, 35–37; at Port Louis, 37, 39–40, 41; at Cape of Good Hope, 38–39; at Batavia, 40, 41; Spain would not receive, 40, 42; at Canton, 41; consulates abandoned during War of 1812, 41; consulate reopened in Philippines, 41, 42; recognized by Spain, 44; post at Singapore, 49; new posts established, 49 ff.; at Bombay, 54–55; fee system for, 55, 56; Congress reorganized Consular Service, 55, 56; vague relationship between Department of State and Consular Service, 57–58
Cooke, W. Henry: "History and International Understanding," 305–311; review by, 355–356
Cooper, special agent to Port Louis to negotiate for commercial privileges, 39
Cox, Isaac J., review by, 225–226
Cranston, Earl, reviews by, 116–118, 456
Creel, H. G., cited on Chinese civilization, 173
Creer, L. H., review by, 362–364
Cressy, George B., review by, 370–371
Criminal syndicalism: California law, 286; trial of Anita Whitney for, 287 ff.; section four of, Act, 294
Crowe, Sir Eyre, quoted on work of foreign offices, 211
Custer, George A., 60; forces destroyed, 66–67

Daily Mail [London], showed influence of mass opinion on foreign affairs, 209
Dale, Edward Everett, review by, 102
"Dan De Quille's Mark Twain," by C. Grant Loomis, 336–347
Dautry, Raoul, headed Ministry of Reconstruction and Town Planning, 419, 423, 424
Davidson, Donald C., reviews by, 447–448
Davy, John B., consul at Rangoon, 41
"Dawn of Manufacturing in Peru, The," by J. Fred Rippy, 147–157
Dawson City, small stampede to area, 259, 260
Decoto, Ezra, district attorney during Whitney trial, 288, 291
de Gaulle, Charles, appointed Dautry, 419
de Geofroy, Marc-Antoine, requested Seward to stop Vega's shipments, 391
Dennett, Tyler, cited on Boxer revolt, 279
Derby, Elias Haskett, pioneer in India trade, 32
Deutsch, Herman J., review by, 353–354
Díaz, Porfirio, 295; resigned, 303
Diplomatic history, study of: abundant material for, of Balkan war, 207; hazards in, of recent period, 208; importance of mass opinion and technical change, 209; imagination in, 209–210; beyond frame of rationalism, 210; statesmen in, 210 ff.; school for wisdom, 212–213. See also Foreign policy
Discovery of Canada, The, by Burpee, review of, 350–351
"Discovery of Gold at Nome, Alaska," by L. H. Carlson, 259–278
Disraeli, Benjamin: conversion to household suffrage, 178; parliamentary triumph of 1867, 178; supported Gorst, 179, 180; peer, 180; died, 181; statue, 183, 184
Doctors East, Doctors West, by Hume, review of, 456
Dominican Republic: a "hot spot" of Caribbean, 410; anti-Trujillo exiles from, 410; economic conditions in depression, 411; hurricane, 411; Trujillo president, 411 ff.; Partido Dominicano in power, 412; Trujillo rule, 412–413; opposition party, 415; obstacles to U.S. intervention, 415–416
Dumke, Glenn S., reviews by, 231, 463
Dundas, Francis, threatened to imprison Elmslie, 38
Dunn, William E., cited on manufacturing in Peru, 149
Dunne, Peter Masten, S. J., review by, 108–109
Dutch East India Company, ruined by capture of fleet, 33
Dyea-Chilkoot Pass, opened to American prospectors, 259
Dynasties, Chinese: based on Mandate of Heaven, 171; histories of, 171; Chou, 171, 172; "Warring States" period, 172, 175; "Six Dynasties," 173, 175, 176; Ch'in, 173, 175; Sui, 173, 175; T'ang, 175; Sung, 175–176; Yüan, 176; Ming, 177

"Early Commercial and Consular Relations with the East Indies," by Seward W. Livermore, 31–58
East India Company: policy toward English vessels, 32; monopoly in Calcutta, 36; monopoly east of Cape of Good Hope, 38; safeguards for monopoly at Cape, 39; abolition of monopoly, 41; withdrew opposition to U.S. consul in Straits Settlements, 51
East India Company, The, by Wilbur, review of, 223–224
Economic Freedom for the West, by Berge, review of, 461–462
Ellis, William, letters to, about mission in Hawaii, 142
Ellison, William H., review by, 109–110
Elmslie, John: position as consul at Cape Town, 38 f.; aided American shipmasters, 38; returned home, 39
Ely, Edward, consul at Bombay, 55
Emma, Queen: Anglophile, 133; interested in establishing church, 135, 136; baptized, 145
Empress of China, first American vessel to Canton, 31
Episcopal Church in Hawaii: question of political motivation, 133, 146; interest of Kamehameha IV in, 135–136; appeal to England, 136; building site, 136 f.; meeting, 136; founders, 137; expanded plan, 138; Society help, 138; English interest in, 139 ff.; bishop, 141, 143–144, 145; first services, 145; charter of "Hawaiian Reformed Catholic Church," 145; patronage of royal family, 146

Familia Carvajal, La, by Toro, review of, 102–104
Farmers' Last Frontier, The, by Shannon, review of, 113–114
Farms and Farmers, by Clark, review of, 220–221
Farquhar, Governor, departure for England, 45
First History of Sacramento City, The, by Morse, review of, 247
First Overland Mail, The, ed. by Lang, review of, 374
Fisher, Raymond H., review by, 107–108
Flanagan, John T., review by, 460–461
Flight from China, by Booker, review of, 116–118
Flores Magón, Enrique and Ricardo: founders of Partido Liberal Mexicano, 295; alliance with I.W.W., 295; anti-Díaz, 295; newspaper, 295; assembled "socialist" army to attack Baja California, 295; tried, 304; Ricardo convicted, 304, sentenced again in U.S., 304, died, 304
Forbes, Gerald, review by, 361–362
"Foreign Policy of Japan and the Boxer Revolt, The," by Paul A. Varg, 279–285
Formative Years of the Catholic University of America, The, by Ellis, review of, 454–455
Fortnightly Review, Churchill's program outlined in, 183–184
Fortress Islands of the Pacific, The, review of, 462
Foundations of National Power, ed. by Sprout, review of, 218
Four Essays on Gulliver's Travels, by Case, review of, 123
"Fourth party": obstructed Gladstone, 181–182; advocated liberal policies, 182, 185, 188; Northcote opposed, 183; position in National Union, 185, 186; dissolved, 191
France, postwar: living conditions today, 417; war damage, 417 ff.; cities destroyed, 417; casualties, 418; plans for rebuilding, 419; delays, 419; destruction, 419–421; transportation, 420–421; shortage of coal, 422–423; industrial production, 422; agricultural production, 423; clearing of mines, 424–425; health of returning prisoners and deportees, 425 ff.
Frankian, S., review by, 232
Fray Alonso de Benavides' Revised Memorial of 1634, ed. by Hodge, review of, 351–352
Frazer, Robert W., "Trade between California and the Belligerent Powers during the French Intervention in Mexico," 390–399
French East India Company, reorganized, 31–32
French intervention in Mexico: U.S. source of material and equipment, 390; embargo on export of arms, 390; embargo modified, 390; Rhin loading supplies, 392–393; use of California ports by French ships, 395; favored by McDowell's order, 397
From Cowhides to Golden Fleece, by Underhill, review of, 469
Fulbright, J. William, sponsored bill for Bureau of Scientific Research, 5
Fur Brigade to the Bonaventura, ed. by Maloney, review of, 447–448
"Further Note on the Bankruptcy of Joseph Smith in Illinois, A," edited by M. Hamlin Cannon, 214–215

Ganoe, John T., review by, 350–351
Garland, Alejandro, cited on Peru's manufacturing plants, 148
"Gateway of Confucius," 159
General George Crook: His Autobiography, by Schmitt, review of, 359–360
Generals and the Admirals, The, by Chamberlain, review of, 236–237
Gerhard, Peter, "The Socialist Invasion of Baja California, 1911," 295–304
Gladstone, William: "Fourth party" obstructed, 181–182; ministry defeated, 190; estimate of, 212
Godoy, José A.: replaced Aguirre, 395; complained to McDowell, 395, 397; ordered to settle Vega's affairs, 399
Gold in Alaska: discovery, 259, 260, 261; first gold rush in Alaska, 259; Chilkoot Pass opened to prospectors, 259; strike on Klondike, 260, and stampede to, 260; discovery on Seward Peninsula, 270; mining districts organized, 261, 263, 268–269; discovery at Nome, 261, 264 ff.; staking of district, 267 ff.; on beach, 278

Gold rush, Black Hills: quarter of century after California rush, 59; mushroom towns, 59, 67, became "ghost towns," 59, 67; gold discovered, 60; publicity about discovery, 61; difficult routes for, 62–63; on Indian territory, 64–65; Indians hostile to, 65–67; deep-vein mining closed, 67. See also Black Hills
Gorst, John Eldon: first chairman National Union council, 179; centralized party machine, 180; resigned, 180; reëntered Commons, 180; joined Wolff, 181; criticized party leadership, 182
Government and Labor in Early America, by Morris, review of, 442–443
Grapes and Wines from Home Vineyards, by Hedrick, review of, 122–123
Great Pacific Victory, The, by Cant, review of, 237–238
Greater America: Essays in Honor of Herbert Eugene Bolton, review of, 348–349
Greer, James K., review by, 451
Grey, Sir Edward, foreign policy of, mentioned, 210
Griffin, Grace Gardner, bibliography of American history, 428 f.

Halevy, Elie, The World Crisis of 1914–1918, quoted on causes of strife, 210
Han, Yu-Shan, "The Chinese Civil Service: Yesterday and Today," 158–170
Hardy, Osgood: reviews by, 235, 241, 440–441; "Rafael Leonidas Trujillo Molina," 409–416
Harper, Lawrence A.: "Microphotography and History," 427–434; review by, 442–443
Harper's Weekly: publicized Black Hills gold discovery, 61; quoted on Japanese soldier, 282
Harris, Myron, prosecuting attorney in Whitney trial, 288, 293
Hawaiian mail: first Numeral postage stamps, 312, 321; two factions, 312 ff.; question of pay to insure speedy and dependable service, 312, or free to encourage letter writing, 312, 314; provisions for rates, 312; coasting vessels carried, 313; interisland rates, 313–315, 317, 318, 321; recommendations, 315, 317–318; Civil Code, 321
Hawaiian policy, American influence on, 133, 146
Hay, John, dispatched Open Door Notes, 279, 283
Hays Office, The, by Moley, review of, 457–458
Hendershot, Clarence, review by, 446–447
Hermle, Leo D., in charge of mission to Truk, 402, 403, 406
Herrick, Francis H.: "Lord Randolph Churchill and the Popular Organization of the Conservative Party," 178–191; review by, 223–224
Hewes, William, consul at Batavia, 40
Hicks, John D., review by, 113–114
Higginson, James B., neglected duties as consul, 55–56
Hill, Don, reviews by, 112, 452–453
Historical scholarship: tendency to narrow field, 429; microphotography possibilities, 429; new techniques, 431; I.B.M. classifications, 432; field too vast, 433. See also Historical writing
Historical training: stresses accurate use of material, 201; value of, in field, 202 ff.; and in Washington, 205; value in State Department and Foreign Service, 206; challenge to teachers, 206; hazards in study of recent history, 208; imagination needed, 209–210. See also Diplomatic history, study of "Historical Training and Military Intelligence," by Woodbridge Bingham, 201–206
Historical writing: nationalistic, 305; primary sources, 306; documentary approach to history, 306; for purpose, 306; vital to further international understanding, 306 ff.; social history, 308–309
"History and International Understanding," by W. Henry Cooke, 305–311
History of Seattle Stock Companies, The, by Rohrer, review of, 455
History of the Social-Democratic Party of Milwaukee, by Wachman, review of, 364
Hoijer, Harry, review by, 221–222
Holden, W. C., review by, 449–450
Holladay, Ben: as "Stagecoach King," 379, 380; railroad enterprises in Willamette Valley, 379; exploits stimulated economic development of Pacific Northwest, 379, 381, 384, 389; acquired control of "East Side" Oregon Central, 380–381; reorganized and refinanced as Oregon and California Railroad, 381–382; acquired control of "West Side," 382; formed Oregon Steamship Company, 383; agreement with Villard, 383, and repudiation of, 387; removed from control of Oregon and California, 383; sold interests, 384; estimate of, 384; died, 384
"Holladay-Villard Transportation Empire in the Pacific Northwest, 1868-1893, The," by William Harland Boyd, 379–389
Hopkins, Charles Gordon, quoted on law for Polynesian, 317
Hopkins, Manley: instructions to, 136–137; work for church, 137 ff.; book by, 138; interested English, 139–141 passim; quoted on qualifications for bishop, 140
Hubbell, George W., consular appointment not recognized, 43–44
Hufnagle, Charles, raised American flag in Calcutta, 56

Hultberg, N. O., in Alaska, 261, 262–267 passim
Hunter, Milton R., review by, 226–228
Hyma, Albert, review by, 106

Ibbotson, E. I., to Hawaii, 143
Île de France: halfway station, 31, 37; opened to foreign trade, 31; declared open port, 32; ships cleared from Salem for, 32, 33, 39; French cruisers preying upon shipping based at, 37; American trade with, improved, 39; captured by British, 40; opened to trade after fire, 44; decline in American trade, 45
Inter-American Affairs, 1944, ed. by Whitaker, review of, 121–122
Interisland mails [Hawaii]: two views of function of, 312; first regulations, 312; postal rates, 312; postmasters, 313; arrangements with U.S. 314; free service, 314–315; battle for postage, 315 ff.
"Introduction of the Episcopal Church into the Hawaiian Islands," by Ralph S. Kuykendall, 133–146
Introduction to the Papers of the New York Prize Court, An, by Robinton, review of, 124
Islands and Peoples of the South Seas, The, by Kennedy, review of, 462–463
It's Tomorrow Out Here, by Miller, review of, 463
I.W.W.: arrest of members, 287; issue of, in Whitney trial, 288, 291, 292, 293; alliance with Flores Magón brothers, 295; enlisted "socialists" for invasion of Mexico, 295

Jackson, Joseph: quoted on interisland postage, 317–318; published stamp notice, 321
Jackson, W. Turrentine, review by, 353
James, Charles: enforced embargo, 391; ordered to enforce regulations, 392; denied clearance to Mexico to munitions vessels, 397
James Monroe, by Cresson, review of, 468–469
Japan, foreign policy of, in Boxer revolt: changed, 279, 280; collaboration with powers, 280 ff.; bore brunt of attack in military actions, 281; praise for soldiers of, 281–282; helped to preserve territorial integrity of China, 281–285 passim; threat of Russia to, 285
Japan and the Son of Heaven, by Price, review of, 238–239
Japanese mandates: claim that, unfortified, 400–401; powerful bases, 401
Japan's Prospect, ed. by Haring, review of, 466–467
Jefferson, Thomas: scientific interest mentioned, 2; letter to Joy quoted, 35
Jesuits in Old Oregon, The, by Bischoff, review of, 108–109
Journal of John Work, The, ed. by Dee, review of, 447–448
Joy, Benjamin, as consul in Calcutta, 35–36

Kamehameha, Lot, minister of interior, 317
Kamehameha III, unsuccessful attempts under, to establish Episcopal chapel, 133
Kamehameha IV: little American influence in reign of, 133; antidemocratic views of, 133; Anglophile, 133; Neilson tragedy, 134–135; religious interest, 135–136; appealed to England, 136; letter to Victoria quoted, 139; death of prince, 144–145; translated Prayer Book, 145
Kamehameha V: little American influence in reign of, 133; antidemocratic views of, 133; letter to Queen Emma quoted, 146
Kemble, John Haskell, review by, 358–359
Keoni Ana: quoted on free postage, 315 f.; death, 317
Kerr, John Stuart, consul at Manila, 40–41
Key to Japan, by Price, review of, 239–240
Kilgore, Harley M. introduced science mobilization bill, 4–5, 7; quoted, 29–30
King, Rufus, American minister at London, 36
King's Highway, by Norvell, review of, 353
Kip, William Ingraham: supported project for church in Hawaii, 137; mentioned, 143
Kittilsen, A. N., in Alaska, 261, 263, 268–271 passim
Klingberg, Frank J., review by, 218–219
Klondike. See Alaska.
Knoles, George Harmon, review by, 354–355
Koontz, Louis Knott, "The Social Sciences in the National Science Foundation," 1–30
Kuykendall, Ralph S., "Introduction of the Episcopal Church into the Hawaiian Islands," 133–146
Kyte, George W., "War Damage and Problems of Reconstruction in France, 1940–1945," 417–426

Lake Pontchartrain, by Roberts, review of, 468
Land Title Origins, by Chandler, review of, 356–357
Langer, William, footnotes in volumes by, cited, 209
Last Mountains, by Case, review of, 106–107
Last Trek of the Indians, The, by Foreman, review of, 448–449
Latin American Front, The, by Privitera, review of, 235–236
Latourette, Kenneth Scott, review by, 238–239
Lattimore, Owen, interpretation of Chinese history cited, 173, 174
Lei, Hai-tsung, scheme of bisection of Chinese history cited, 176
Leonard, Irving A., review by, 351–352
Lewis, Jacob, sent to Calcutta, 36; returned home, 37
Leyva, José María: seized Mexicali, 296; defeated at Tecate, 298–299; to U.S., 299
Liang Ch'i-ch'ao, cited on dynastic interpretation of history, 172

Libby, D. B.: discovered gold, 260–261; in Klondike, 263
Lillard, Richard G., review by, 453–454
Lin Mousheng, cited on divisions of Chinese history, 175
Lindblom, Eric, in Alaska, 266–267, 268, 269, 274
Lindeberg, Jafet, in Alaska, 267, 268, 269, 272
Literary Currents in Hispanic America, by Ureña, review of, 105
Livermore, Seward W., "Early Commercial and Consular Relations with the East Indies," 31–58
Lockey, Joseph Byrne, death of, 471–472
London, Jack, at El Alamo, 300
Loomis, C. Grant, "Dan De Quille's Mark Twain," 336–347
"Lord Randolph Churchill and the Popular Organization of the Conservative Party," by Francis H. Herrick, 178–191
Los Angeles Times, quoted on "red menace," 287
Lost Americans, The, by Hibben, review of, 349
Low, Frederick F., Vega conferred with, 391

Macarty, William, as consul at Port Louis, 37
Macaulay, William, quoted on weakness of Pitt, 210
McClallan, John, to Java to warn American ships, 40
McDougall, Alexander, resolution concerning McDowell order, 398
McDowell, Irwin: could not return arms to Vega, 394; Godoy complained to, 395; asked War Department for ruling, 395; granted permission for French repairs at Mare Island, 395; instructions prohibiting arms shipments across border, 397; general order protested, 397; Grant revoked order of, 399; new general order countermanding first, 399
McGurk, Joseph, ambassador to Dominican Republic, 414
Maclean, J. M., voted with "Fourth party," 187–188
McMahon, Edward, review by, 455
MacNair, Harley Farnsworth, reviews by, 115–116, 465–466
Madero, Francisco, 303 f.
Madison, James, instructions to consul at Île de France quoted, 39
"Mandate of Heaven," idea of: Chou dynasty originated, 171; Confucians elaborated, 171; Mencius deduced right of revolution from, 171; "dynastic sequence" and, 171
Manufacturing in Peru: material resources, 147; reasons for tardiness in, 147; history, 147–149; industries, 147–154 passim; effect of wars on, 148, 151; factories, 148, 149–151, 152–154; manufacturing centers, 150; tariff, 151; labor distribution, 152; government monopolies, 154; foreign capital and technicians, 154–155, 156; British companies, 156; markets, 157
Many Mexicos, by Simpson, review of, 248
Marshall, H. P.: consul at Zanzibar, 53; cited on charges to American ships, 54
Marshall, James Wilson, gold discovery by, 59–60
Marvin, F. S., quoted on Humanity in history, 308
Mason, George: to Hawaii, 143; preached at inauguration of bishop, 145
Maverick Town, by McCarty, review of, 451
Mayol, Miguel: refused to aid Vega, 298; to Colorado River, 299 f.
Mazéres, Rear Admiral de, commander of French fleet, 396
Mazour, Anatole G., reviews by, 244–246
Meadows, T. T., cited on Chinese people, 173
Melsing, L. F., in Alaska, 261, 263, 276–277
Memoirs of Elisha Oscar Crosby, by Barker, review of, 109–110
Mencius, quoted on right of revolution, 171
Mexican Gold Trail, ed. by Dumke, review of, 228–229
Mexican Village, by Niggli, review of, 248
Mexico: Revolution began, 295; considered arms embargo discriminatory, 390; attempted to acquire arms in U.S., 390; French control of Gulf coast of, 390; viewpoint of, 394; repair of French vessels in U.S. ports, 395; vessels carrying munitions to, denied clearance, 397; suspended Vega's authorization, 397; McDowell order blow to, 397; debate over right to obtain arms ended, 399; attitude of, 399
Michael, Franz H., review by, 240
Microphotography: possibilities, 429; cost, 430, 432; space saving, 430
"Microphotography and History," by Lawrence A. Harper, 427–434
Midwest at Noon, by Hutton, review of, 460–461
Military intelligence: historical training advantageous in, 201, 203; scholarship prerequisite for, 201, 203; functions of, 201; use of captured documents, 202 f.; bulletins, 203; military history, 204; briefing, 204–205
Miller, William J., consul at Calcutta, 36
"Modern California Cartography: Aids for the Map Compiler," by H. F. Raup, 77–84
Mok, P. K., review by, 120–121
Mood, Fulmer: "Some Maps Showing the Distribution of Population on the Pacific Coast in 1850 and 1860," 216–217; review by, 438
Mordaunt, A. P., in Alaska, 260–261, 263, 276
Morison, Samuel, mentioned, 204
Morning Post [London], supported Primrose League, 184
Morris, Robert, sent first U.S. ship to Canton, 31
Morris, William Alfred, death of, 250
Mosby, Jack: led band to Tecate, 300–301; injured, 301; tried, 304

Mowry, George E., review by, 461–462
Murray, George D., received surrender of Truk, 407
My Brother Americans, by Romulo, review of, 464
My Chinese Wife, by Eskelund, review of, 116–118
My Twenty-five Years in China, by Powell, review of, 115–116

Nasatir, A. P., review by, 357–358
National Archives of Latin America, The, ed. by Hill, review of, 367
National Science Foundation: plan for, 1, 29; research agency, 1, 5; preference for name, 8
National Union of Conservative Associations: formation, 179; council, 179; distributing center, 180; position of "Fourth party" in, 185, 186; Percy and Churchill in, 185 ff.; devitalized, 190
Neilson, Henry A., tragedy of, 134–135
Nevill, Lord, managed elections, 179, 180
New Frontiers in Asia, by Jaffe, review of, 243
New Jersey Progressivism before Wilson, by Noble, review of, 469
New United States, The, by Robinson, review of, 458–459
New York Herald, cited on McDowell's order, 398
Nichols, Jeannette P., reviews by, 233–234, 458–459
No Man Knows My History, by Brodie, review of, 226–228
No More a Stranger, by Fisher, review of, 453–454
Noble, Harold J., reviews by, 118–120
Nome: gold discovery, 261, 264 ff.; stampede to, 272–273, 275, 277–278; district staked, 273 ff.; abuses, 274 ff.; claim jumping, 275–276; lawsuits, 276–277; gold on beach, 278
North American Transportation and Trading Company, 275
North Atlantic Triangle, by Brebner, review of, 443–444
Northcote, Sir Stafford: Conservative leader in Commons, 180, 181; contrasted with Salisbury, 181; policy of quiescence, 182; protested division in party, 183; Churchill opposed, 183; political career over, 190–191; peer, 190
Notes on General Ashley, the Overland Trail, and South Pass, by Frost, review of, 357–358
Nuevo Mundo, cited on repair of French ships at Mare Island, 395, 396
Nunemaker, J. Horace, review by, 102–104

O'Connor, Thomas H.: attorney in Whitney trial, 288; died, 291
Office of Scientific Research and Development (OSRD), 2, 3
Official Gazette announced: Elmslie's appointment, 38–39; Hufnagle's commission, 56
Oman, Charles, cited on "poisonous history," 305
"On the Study of Diplomatic History," by Raymond J. Sontag, 207–213
Open Door Notes, 279
Opportunity in Alaska, by Sundborg, review of, 233–234
Ourselves and the Pacific, by Crawford, review of, 374
Outline of the Growth of Far Eastern Civilizations, An, by Hyma, review of, 350

Pacific Commercial Advertiser: cited need for church, 134; argued against abdication of Kamehameha IV, 135; organ of local American community, 141; defended free mail, 316, 318; quoted on interisland postage, 318–320 passim
"Pacific Voyage, 1866," edited by Warren B. Walsh, 85–90
Paden, Irene D., review by, 230–231
Paden, William G., review by, 106–107
Palais, Hyman, "Some Aspects of the Black Hills Gold Rush Compared with the California Gold Rush," 59–67
Palmer, Alexander Mitchell, quoted on Bolshevists, anarchists, etc., 286, 287
Papers Relating to the Foreign Relations of the United States, 1930, review of, 367–368
Parker, Philemon S.: consul at Bombay, 54; resigned, 54
Partido Liberal Mexicano: program, 295; leaders exiled, 295; headquarters in Los Angeles, 295.
Passage to Glory, by Augur, review of, 353–354
Peguche, Canton of Otavalo, Province of Imbabura, Ecuador, by Parsons, review of, 222–223
Pelzer, Karl J., reviews by, 242, 368–369
Pelzer, Louis, death of, 473–474
Percy, Lord: chairman of National Union, 185; hostile to Churchill, 185; resigned chairmanship, 186
"Periodization of Chinese History, The," by Meribeth Cameron, 171–177
Periodization of Chinese history: "dynastic sequence," 171–172; problem of, 174; schemes of, 174 ff. See also Chinese history; Dynasties, Chinese
Peru: population, 147; material resources, 147; national income, 157. See also Manufacturing in Peru
Pickering, Timothy, suggested Miller as consul at Calcutta, 36
Pioneer Family of Whiskey Flat, by Wynn, review of, 112
Pioneer Settlement in the Asiatic Tropics, by Pelzer, review of, 368–369
Pollard, Lancaster, review by, 441–442

Polynesian: quoted on lawmakers, 313; on postage, 313–314; law relating to, 317; favored interisland postage, 318; quoted, 319–321 passim
Population and Peace in the Pacific, by Thompson, review of, 370–371
Potter, Bishop, supported plan for Hawaiian Episcopal church, 137
Power, Eileen, quoted on teaching of history, 305
"Prelude to the Hawaiian Numerals: A study in Postal History," by J. F. Westerberg, 312–321
Price, Gabriel W.: in Alaska, 268–271 passim; letter from, 271
Primrose League: formed, 184; recognized, 190
Proclaimed List of Certain Blocked Nationals, The, factories in Peru listed, 156
Promised Land, by Holbrook, review of, 373–374
Prospector in Siberia, by Lied, review of, 114–115
Pryce, Carl Rhys: title, 301; controlled Tijuana, 302; arrested, 302
Pueblo Indian World, The, by Hewett and Dutton, review of, 221–222
Puryear, Vernon J., review by, 220–221

Quinn, James G., judge for trial of Anita Whitney, 287

"Rafael Leonidas Trujillo Molina," by Osgood Hardy, 409–416
Raffles, Sir Stamford, policy to destroy Dutch influence in East, 50
Raikes, Henry Cecil, helped form National Union, 179, 180
Railroads, transcontinental: part in development of western states, 379; "Big Four" of Central Pacific, 379; Oregon Central projects, 380 ff.; Northern Pacific acquired Oregon Steam Navigation Co., 385; construction between Portland and Puget Sound, 386, 388; Union Pacific outlet in Northwest, 386–387; Southern Pacific acquired Oregon and California, 387; competition, 388; N.P. and U.P. contention for Snake River region, 388; North American Company, 389. See also Holladay, Ben; Villard, Henry
Randolph, Jennings, effort for scientific-research program, 4, 5
Raup, H. F., "Modern California Cartography: Aids for the Map Compiler," 77–84
Rawle, Bishop, vindicated S.P.G., 199
Raymer, Robert G., review by, 220
"Records Program in the Western Regional Division of the Office of Price Administration, The," by Bernerd C. Weber, 435–437
Regeneración, spread anti-Díaz propaganda, 295
Rehabilitation of veterans. See Veterans
"Rehabilitation of World War I Veterans in District No. 12," by Evangeline Thurber, 68–76
Report from Red China, by Forman, review of, 118–120
Restarick, Bishop H. B., quoted on political significance of Hawaiian church, 146
Restless India, by Rosinger, review of, 467–468
Revolt of the South and West, by Mezerik, review of, 375–376
Richards, Charles J., appointed vice-consul, 55–56
Ricord, John, quoted on Hawaiian laws, 313
Rippy, J. Fred, "The Dawn of Manufacturing in Peru," 147–157
Rival Partners, by Hutchison, review of, 371–372
Robert E. Lee in Texas, by Rister, review of, 449–450
Roberts, Edmund: negotiations for American trade, 45, 49; in Batavia, 45, 50
Robinson, W. W., review by, 356–357
Rockefeller, Nelson: in Dominican Republic, 414; assistant secretary of state, 414
Rockhill, William Woodville, opposed severe punishment of China for Boxer revolt, 284
Romance of Mining, The, by Rickard, review of, 220
Romero, Matías: asked that Rhin be prevented from sailing, 392; advised Vega to move arms, 394; informed State Department of French ships, 395; provided with statement of policy on coal, 395; protested McDowell's order, 397; published correspondence, 399
Roots of American Loyalty, The, by Curti, review of, 355–356
Ross, Horatio Nelson, discovered gold in Black Hills, 60
Rowbotham, Arnold H., review by, 444–445
Russell, Bertrand, quoted on Liberals, 210
Russell, John, letter to Wyllie quoted, 139
Russell and Sturgis, agency in Manila, 44
Russia and the Western World, by Laserson, review of, 246–247
Russia: desired territorial gains from China, 279; proposed removal of troops and legations to Tientsin, 282; policy on arms embargo for China, 284; Port Arthur, 285
Rydell, Raymond A., reviews by, 111, 224
Rydjord, John, review by, 235–236

Salisbury, Lord: first ministry, 178; Conservative leader in Lords, 181; contrasted with Northcote, 181; Churchill opposed, 183, 186, 188 ff.; supported central committee, 186–187; prime minister, 190–191; quoted on foreign policy, 211 f.; appealed for Japanese force, 280
Saloutos, Theodore, reviews by, 234, 364
Sandmeyer, Elmer C., review by, 457
San Francisco Daily Morning Call, alleges U.S. discrimination against Mexico, 393
San Martín, Knight of the Andes, review of, 225–226

Santa Fe: The Railroad that Built an Empire, by Marshall, review of, 375
Savelle, Max, review by, 443–444
Schutz, John A.: "Christopher Codrington's Will: Launching the S.P.G. into the Barbadian Sugar Business," 192–200; review by, 366
Science—The Endless Frontier, Vannevar Bush's report, 2
Senate bill 1720 (1297): introduced, 4–5; incorporated recommendations of Bush report, 5; hearings on, 6–7; provisions of, 8 ff.
Seward, William Henry: Secretary of State, 390, 391, 392; explained arms embargo, 390
Seward Peninsula: gold discovery on, and stampede to, 260; first mining districts organized, 261, 263. See also Gold; Nome
Seymour, Charles, Diplomatic Background of the War cited, 207
Seymour, E. H., ordered to Peking, 260
Shaw, Samuel, as consul to Canton, 35
Shepard, Ward, quoted on Bush program, 9, 29
Shepherd's Empire, by Towne and Wentworth, review of, 102
Sheridan, Philip H., recommended fort in Black Hills, 60, 66
Shillaber, John, as consul at Batavia, 46–47
Ships of the Redwood Coast, by McNairn and McMullen, review of, 231
Shore, Sir John, governor of Bengal, 35; quoted on admitting American consul, 36
Simpson, S., consul at Bombay, 55
Singapore, described, 50
Singapore Chronicle, advertised Balestier exequatur, 51
Sitka: The Chief Factory of the Russian American Company, by Andrews, review of, 123–124
Slade, Sir Arthur, on council of Primrose League, 184
Smalridge, John, report of, 197
Snyder, Rixford K., review by, 369–370
Social sciences: in National Science Foundation, 1 ff.; legislation for research in, 4; hearings testimony regarding, 10–30
"Social Sciences in the National Science Foundation, The," by Louis Knott Koontz, 1–30
"Socialist Invasion of Baja California, 1911, The," by Peter Gerhard, 295–304
Socialist World [Oakland], mentioned, 203
Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts (S.P.G.): founded, 192, 193; Codrington's beneficiary, 192, 193, 195 ff.; purpose, 193; circulated copies of sermons, 193; missionaries, 194; similarity to Catholic societies, 194; terms of inheritance, 195; plans for college, 196, 198–199; in dispute over will, 196–197; plantation operator, 198 ff.
Soesman, Abraham E., U.S. agent for commerce and seamen at Batavia, 46
"Some Aspects of the Black Hills Gold Rush Compared with the California Gold Rush," by Hyman Palais, 59–67
"Some Maps Showing the Distribution of Population on the Pacific Coast in 1850 and 1860," by Fulmer Mood, 216–217
Sontag, Raymond, "On the Study of Diplomatic History," 207–213
Sorel, Albert: cited on rulers as policy makers, 208; quoted on wars from system of nationalities, 210
Southern California Country, by McWilliams, review of, 452–453
Soviet Far Eastern Policy, by Moore, review of, 245–246
Speed, James, interpreted McDowell's order, 398
Spencer, Joseph, review by, 243
Stacey, George, reported French losses, 39
Staley, Thomas Nettleship: bishop in Hawaii, 141, 143–144; baptized prince, 144
Stanford, Leland, mentioned, 379
Steiger, G. Nye; cited on Boxer revolt, 279; review by, 445–446
Steiner, H. Arthur, review by, 237–238
Stephens, Henry Morse, quoted on historical writing, 311
Story of the Dutch East Indies, The, by Vlekke, review of, 106
Stuart, Alexander: irked by official impotency, 42; cited on American trade, 43
Sturgis, Henry, consul at Manila, 44
Sumigawa, headed surrender at Truk, 402, 404, 406
"Surrender of the Fortress of Truk, The," by Charles Stuart Blackton, 400–408
Sutter, John August, mentioned, 60
Syndicalism, criminal: California law, 286; trial of Anita Whitney for, 287 ff.; section four of, Act, 294
Synge, William W. F.: brought cup from Victoria, 144; report on baptism of prince quoted, 144–145

Terry, Alfred H., dispatched Custer, 60, 66
Tetons: Interpretations of a Mountain Landscape, The, by Fryxell, review of, 248
Theodore Roosevelt and the Progressive Movement, by Mowry, review of, 364–366
Theory and Practice in Historical Study, review of, 438
This is the Place: Utah, by Whipple, review of, 362–364
Through Japanese Eyes, by Tolischus, review of, 465–466
Thurber, Evangeline, "Rehabilitation of World War I Veterans in District No. 12," 68–76
Times [London]: letters in, supporting Salisbury against Northcote, 183; supported Churchill, 188

Tompkins, Stuart Ramsay, review by, 114–115
Too rig Luck, 261–262
Tornensis, J. S., in Alaska, 261, 263, 268, 269, 276
Torres-Rioseco, Arturo, review by, 105
Tory Democracy: rising politicians supported, 178; new political movement, 182; birthday of, 183–184; Gorst principal organizer, 190; ceased to be party program, 191
Toynbee, Arnold, bisection scheme for Chinese history cited, 176, 177
Trade, Far Eastern: early with Chinese, 31; Dutch East Indies opened to, 31, 33, 45–48; boom with Île de France, 31–32; with Manila, 32, 40, 42–43; with British India, 32, 33; "Clandestine," 32; decline in, with China, 33; Salem ships cleared for, 33; hazards in East Indian, 33–34; federal measures to protect, 34; consuls to aid, 34–35; free, with Cape Town, 37; with Rangoon, 41; War of 1812 ended, 41, but renewed, 41; Spanish commercial policy in Manila, 42–43, 44; rum major item in export, 43; British Order in Council improved Caribbean, 48; attack on U.S. ship in pepper ports, 48–49; with Singapore, 49 ff.; Anglo-American Convention of 1815 and, 50, 51; with African coast, 53
"Trade between California and the Belligerent Powers during the French Intervention in Mexico," by Robert W. Frazer, 390–399
Trail to California, ed. by Potter, review of, 230–231
Treadwell, Leonard L.: Vega's arrangements with, 396; purchased Vega's arms at Benicia, 397
Treat, Payson J., reviews by, 239–240, 466–467
"Trial of Charlotte Anita Whitney," by Woodrow C. Whitten, 286–294
Tribune [Oakland], quote on Communist Labor party, 294
Trujillo Molina, Rafael Leonidas: opposed by Dominican refuge colony in Cuba, 410; life, 410–411; biography quoted in praise of, 410–412 passim; massacre of Haitians, 412; efficient rule, 412–413; title, 413; attitude toward Axis powers, 413; graft, 413–414; personal monopolies, 414; popularity, 415
Truk: capitulation, 400; menace, 400; history of, 400; description, 400; dominated Japanese holdings, 401; target for air attacks, 401; threat to U.S. convoys, 401; powerful fortification, 401; reply to leaflet urging surrender, 401–402; mission to, 402; Japanese delegation, 402–403; discussion over surrender, 403, 406; imperial fourth-fleet headquarters, 403; installations, 403–404, 405; food shortage, 404; terms of surrender, 406–407; surrender, 407; reasons for bloodless fall, 408
Truman, Harry S.: letter from Vannevar Bush quoted, 2; favored social sciences, 5
Turner, John Kenneth, Flores Magón's propaganda agent, 295

United Nations, membership in, 409
United States: desire of, to maintain relations with France, 390; proposed policy of strict neutrality, 390; arms embargo, 390, modified, 390; French vessels repaired in U.S. ports, 395; State Department ruling on exportation of contraband, 395; Congress reopened question of exports to belligerents, 396
United States, 1865–1900, The, ed. by Garrison, review of, 249
United States Moves Across the Pacific, The, by Latourette, review of, 369–370
USDA, Manager of American Agriculture, by Deering, review of, 234

Varg, Paul A., "The Foreign Policy of Japan and the Boxer Revolt," 279–285
Vásquez Salinas, Francisco: appointed general en jefe, 299; inactive in Mexicali while Williams killed, 299; quarrel with Pryce, 301; returned to U.S., 301
Vega, Celso: Díaz' deputy, 295; injured at Mexicali, 297; sent reinforcements to Tijuana, 298; skirmish at Agua Caliente, 303–304
Vega, Placido: to San Francisco to purchase arms, 390–391; conferred with Low, 391; interested Thomas Brown, 391; purpose, 391; believed embargo would not be enforced, 391; purchases, 391; challenged, 391; Brown and Beale to assistance of, 392; chartered vessels, 393; purchases transferred to Benicia, 393; retained vessels, 394; expended funds, 394; borrowed, 396; bought arms and powder, 396: drafts not honored, 397; authorization suspended, 397; remained in U.S., 399; ordered to Mexico, 399
Vernadsky, George, review by, 246–247
Veterans of World War I, rehabilitation of: Vocational Rehabilitation Act, 69; provisions of Act, 69, 70; costs, 69–74 passim; district offices to aid in, 69–70; part of universities in, 71–72; types of vocational schools, 73 ff.; employment campaigns, 74–75
Via Western Express and Stagecoach, by Winther, review of, 358–359
Victoria, Queen: appeal to, for help for S.P.G., 138–139; godmother of Hawaiian royal child, 144
Villard, Henry: promoter, 380; financier, 383; adjusted finances of Oregon and California R.R., 383; removed Holladay from control, 383; Holladay enterprises under stewardship of, 384; an organizing genius, 384; developed transportation empire in Pacific Northwest, 384; formed Oregon Ry. and Navigation Co., 385; plans for Columbia River Valley, 385–386; gained control of Northern Pacific, 386; maintained interest in western Oregon lines, 387; empire insolvent, 387; to Europe, 387; returned to Northern Pacific, 388; withdrew from N.P. and North American Co., 388; contribution to development of Pacific Northwest, 389

Villard, Henry—(Continued)
Villegas, Daniel Cosio, quoted on U.S. attitude to dictators, 409
Von Ranke, Leopold, taught nationalism, 305–306
Vosper, Robert, review by, 249

Walker, Kathleen C., review by, 236–237
Wallbank, T. Walter, review by, 467–468
Walsh, Warren B., ed.: "Pacific Voyage, 1866," 85–90; "Young Yankee in China," 322–335
"War Damage and Problems of Reconstruction in France, 1940–1945," by George W. Kyte, 417–426
Wardell, M. L., review by, 448–449
Warren, Avra: friendly to Trujillo, 413; transfer to Panama, 414; to New Zealand, 414
Weber, Bernerd C., "The Records Program in the Western Regional Division of the Office of Price Administration," 435–437
Wells, Charles A., credentials as consul refused, 57–58
Wells, Fargo and Company, bought Holladay's stage system, 379
Westerberg, J. F., "Prelude to the Hawaiian Numerals: A Study in Postal History," 312–321
Wheat, Carl I., review by, 228–229
Whitney, Anita: trial of, for criminal syndicalism, 286, 287 ff.; charter member of Communist Labor party, 288, 290; in witness chair, 293; sentenced, 294
Whitney, Henry M.: editor of Pacific Commercial Advertiser, 141, 316; quoted on mail service, 315, 316
Whitten, Woodrow C., "Trial of Charlotte Anita Whitney," 286–294
Who's Who in Latin America: Part I, Mexico, ed. by Hilton, review of, 235
Wilberforce, Samuel: a founder of Episcopal Church in Hawaii, 137; proposed missionary bishopric, 138; quoted, 140
Wild Flag, The, by White, review of, 469–470
Wildcatters, The, by Tait, review of, 361–362
Wilhelm, R., A Short History of Chinese Civilization, mentioned, 173
Williams, Stanley: attacked Los Algodones, 297; expelled to U.S., 298; returned to Los Algodones, 298; killed, 299
Willis, Richard, sermon on S.P.G. quoted, 193
Wilson, William B., ruled on deportation for Communist party members, 286
Wine-Grower's Guide, A., by Wagner, review of, 122–123
Wish, Harvey, review by, 364–366
Wittfogel, Karl, mentioned, 173
Wolff, Sir Henry Drummond: on front opposition bench, 181; article criticized Conservative party, 182; formed Primrose League, 184; member of National Union council, 185; left parliament, 191
Wood, Sam: in command after Mosby injured, 301; wounded, 302
Woodward, Arthur, review by, 349
Wyllie, Robert Crichton: religious interest, 133–134; letters seeking aid for Honolulu church, 136–140 passim; attached to prince, 145; confirmed, 145
Wyllys, Rufus Kay, review by, 121–122

Yankee Ships in China Seas, by Henderson, review of, 224
"Young Yankee in China," edited by Warren B. Walsh, 322–335

nita
ico,
opal
nary
o
2
ivili-
, 297;
Algo-
193 on for iew of,
pposi-
rvative
e, 184;
85; left
njured,
est, 133-
church,
45; con-
rson, re-
Warren B.